

Taipei Medical University

Disbursements of Student Emergency Financial Aids

Note No.	Eligibility	Description	Disbursement Amount
I	Deceased	Both parents deceased.	NT$ 50,000-100,000
		Student himself/herself.	NT$ 30,000
		One parent deceased; registered with government as a low-income household.	NT$ 20,000
		One parent deceased, but not registered with government as a low-income household.	NT$ 10,000
II	Victim of serious event within the family	Student's family in financial difficulties due to either parent having a major disease categorized under the National Health Insurance Administration and also registered with government as a low-income household.	NT$ 30,000
		Student's family in financial difficulties due to either parent having a major disease categorized under the National Health Insurance Administration.	NT$ 10,000-20,000
		Either parent losing their job.	NT$ 10,000
		Others	Award varies depending on actual situation
III	Physically injured or hospitalized	Having a major disease categorized under the National Health Insurance Administration.	NT$ 20,000
		Student's family with financial difficulties and hospitalization of more than 6 days.	NT$ 5,000-20,000
		Student's family with financial	NT$ 3,000-5,000 difficulties and hospitalization of less than 5 days.

		Student's family with financial difficulties with injuries that require long-term care but not hospitalization, e.g. surgical suture, bone fracture.	NT$ 1,000-3,000